STATE OF ILLINOIS
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WELFARE
JOLIET, ILLINOIS

DIVISION OF CRIMINOLOGIST

August 14, 1933

DIAGNOSTIC DEPT.

CLASSIFICATION REPORT

Name: EULO, Frank Age: 26 Prison No. E-7351 Case No. A-51
Adm. 2-29-33 Crime: Robbery with a Machine Gun Sent: 5 - Life

CRIMINOLOGICAL: Inmate was found guilty by a jury, along with his rap-partners Lambert, Dzan and LaPorte, of having robbed a policeman from whom money and a diamond ring were taken; the inmate is said to have been armed with a machine gun. Inmate continues to deny his guilt of the crimes charged to him, and also of having had a machine gun. He says he was working for a gambling house which was raided by officers; he ran out a side door and was apprehended in the apartment of an Italian family. He claims he did not know his rap-partners prior to his arrest. While out on bond he was shot in the leg in a malt and hop joint in Chicago. Except for 10 or 12 admitted arrests for disorderly conduct and in raids, there seems to be no previous record of criminal behavior.

SOCIOLOGICAL: Born 2-17-07 in Chicago. Parents, Italian, were born in Brooklyn but both of them died when inmate was a youth. 3 siblings are living. Father died with tumor of the brain and was mentally unsound at the time of his death. Schooling extended to the 8th grade. He was irregularly employed, with frequent idle periods, at odd jobs of labor for the City of Chicago, in a cigar store, and in gambling houses, but claims he was not idle when arrested. He is married, has a child, and claims his wife is standing by him. He admits the occasional use of intoxicating liquors only. He is an inactive member of the Catholic Church. He seems to have lived disorderly and frequented gambling houses; also to have been mixed up in the liquor business illegally.

PHYSICAL: Medical history includes gonorrhea, and a gunshot wound of the leg; also a nasal operation. He is now a patient in the Old Prison Hospital on account of the injured leg, is somewhat lame, but not seriously injured. Physician's report indicates height 5'5", weight 165#; indicates the wounded condition of the leg, but no other disease or handicap. Dentist reports need of fillings and extractions, also partial dentures. Wasserman neg.

PSYCHOLOGICAL: Psychological tests indicate that he has low average intelligence, mental age 13 years 5 months.

PSYCHIATRIC: This inmate is an egocentric individual who has been economically rather inadequate and who has lived around disorderly places such as gambling houses and bootlegging establishments. There is no outside history to check on. His cooperation was entirely satisfactory and his attitude was such as would indicate that, on account of egocentricity, he might violate rules here, but otherwise will likely respond to disciplinary treatment. There is no evidence of nervous or mental disease.

CLASSIFICATION: First offender who, however, has lived disorderly and frequently been arrested by police. Egocentric personality. Low average intelligence. Temporary physical handicap on account of gunshot injury of the leg. Outlook for adjustment within the institution and extramurally is problematic, but he impresses us as being of the gangster type who might again become involved in trouble with the law when released.

RECOMMENDATIONS: Transfer to Illinois State Penitentiary, Stateville. He should continue to receive medical attention until his leg injury has been recovered from. He is fitted to do manual labor only so far as we are able to judge at this time. If possible he should be trained in a gainful occupation so that he may earn an honest and honorable living when he leaves the institution. It is recommended that he have religious instruction and recreational privileges.

GUS KRINGAS, bartender, Gus' Steak House, Cicero, Illinois, advised that the owner of this establishment was not available and that he is not an employee. He said that he is presently employed as a laborer for the Bureau of Sanitation, City of Chicago, having been so employed for the past 7 years. He is employed at 819 South Kolmar, which is located in the 29th Ward and his supervisor is one [redacted]. He said that he is merely helping out at Gus' Steak House for his brother, [redacted] who is [redacted] restaurant with one [redacted] of [redacted]. He added that his brother [redacted] can be contacted daily at Margo's Restaurant, 4859 West Roosevelt. He explained that the restaurant at Gus' Steak House has been closed for the past six months and that the lounge section is still in operation. He also stated that he resides at 4037 West Van Buren, Chicago, Illinois, telephone number NE 8-5153.

KRINGAS denied knowing one FRANK "Sharkey" EULO who has been reported to operate the gambling game at this establishment. He also denied knowing SAMUEL GIANCANA and claimed to know nothing about a gambling operation at this location.

During the interview FRANK EULO was observed entering GUS' Steak House and greeted GUS KRINGAS by his first name at which time the interview of KRINGAS was terminated.

On 5/2/61 at 4819 West Roosevelt Cicero, Illinois File # 92-918

by SAs VINCENT L. INSERRA and JOHN R. BASSETT/hjz Date dictated 5/8/61

Date May 9, 1961

FRANK "Sharkey" EULO was interviewed at Gus' Steak House, 4819 West Roosevelt, Cicero, Illinois, after EULO reluctantly admitted to his identity and advised as follows:

He has long been a gambler by occupation and has operated various poker and dice games in the Cicero, Illinois area. Concerning the gambling operation at Gus' Steak House, he claimed that he is presently the sole operator of this enterprise. This includes only the operation of the dice and poker games. At first EULO denied that there was any race wife service operating at Gus' Steak House, however, later admitted that there was such an operation. This race wire service is operated by one [redacted] who is from the Chicago South Side and who has a gambling stamp for this type of operation.

Concerning SAM GIANCANA, EULO claims to have known GIANCANA since 1920 having known him since boyhood days. According to EULO, GIANCANA is not connected in any way with his gambling operation at Gus' Steak House and claims to know nothing about GIANCANA's activities. About 5 years ago EULO had a partner in his gambling operation named "Queenie" SIMONELLI, a brother-in-law of ANTHONY ACCARDO. EULO again stated that he alone has the gambling operation at this establishment and that GUS KRINGAS is the owner of the premises of GUS' Steak House.

In connection with his current gambling activities, records are maintained for EULO by the D & B Booking Service in Chicago, formerly located at 5024 West Chicago Avenue, which recently moved to another location about a block away on the same street. One [redacted] operates this bookkeeping service and claimed that these records are available for review if necessary.

By way of background information, EULO stated that he was born February 17, 1907 at Chicago. He resides at 1838 North 77th Court, Elmwood Park, Illinois, telephone number GL 2-8442 with his wife ROSE EULO nee NICASTRO and one son. EULO formerly resided at 1104 South Maple, Oak Park, Illinois and moved from there March 15, 1961, to his present location. In 1933 EULO served 9 years on a 1 to life sentence in Chicago for armed robbery.

Re memo of SA RALPH R. HILL, JR. dated 1/24/61.

Investigation in this case is reflected in FD-302s and memos in the file.

FRANK EULO was interviewed at Gus' Steak House, Cicero, Illinois, on 5/3/61 by SAs VINCENT L. INSERRA and JOHN R. BASSETT. Investigation indicates that EULO is not of sufficient stature for consideration for top hoodlum investigation.

It is therefore recommended that this case be placed in a closed status.

As previously reported GIANCANA underwent surgery in April, 1956 and May, 1958, at which time he used the alias RUSSELL PAIGE and gave as his home address 1104 S. Maple Avenue, Oak Park, Illinois.

Current investigation reflects that the residents at 1104 South Maple Avenue, Oak Park, Illinois, are FRANK EULO and his wife, ROSE, and MIKE SABATINO and his wife, [redacted]. In addition to these individuals who have been observed entering and leaving this residence, a car registered to [redacted] at 1104 South Maple Avenue, Oak Park, has been observed parked in the immediate vicinity of this house on two different occasions.

[redacted] (protect) as reflected in New York letter to Newark dated 2/3/58 in case captioned "JOSEPH PROFACT", reports that on 11/21/57 the name of FRANK EULO, 1104 South Maple, Oak Park, Illinois, was obtained from cards and papers carried by JOSEPH PROFACT, who has been described by [redacted] as the number one man among Sicilians in New York and the United States, and as the man to whom leaders of five Sicilian combinations in the metropolitan area of New York are responsible.

Records of the Chicago Credit Bureau, Inc., made available by [redacted] to Investigative Clerk [redacted] on 8/18/58 do not contain any information pertaining to FRANK EULO.

[redacted] Bureau of Records and Communications, Chicago Police Department, advised Investigative Clerk [redacted] on 8/18/58 that on 3/6/58 FRANK EULO, 1104 Maple, Oak Park, was arrested at 12th and Albany Streets, Chicago, charged with damaging city property, to which he entered a plea of guilty on 3/31/49. He was fined $5.00. EULO did not list his date or place of birth, and gave his occupation as that of clerk.

[redacted] Allen Chevrolet Company, 6527 Roosevelt, Berwyn, Illinois, advised on 8/8/58 that he sold a 1958 Chevrolet Impala, white, to MIKE SABATINO, 1104 S. Maple, Oak Park, Illinois, on 11/30/57. According to [redacted] SABATINO is a "collector" for the syndicate.

CG 92-918

It is to be noted that MICHAEL SABATINO is the brother-in-law of FRANK EULO.

92-349-145 p.3

[redacted] Chicago Tribune Reporter, advised SA RALPH H. HILL, JR. on 7/21/59 that he had recently been talking with a reporter friend of his who had confided in [redacted] that he is a friend of a Chicago hoodlum, unnamed and unknown to [redacted]. This individual had been visiting with the friend over the week end and had confided to the reporter the following facts:

The Chicago Syndicate hierarchy contains two top positions, the most prominent being that of "the man". Directly beneath this position is that of "the boss". "The man" is the overseer and policy maker for the outfit. "The boss" carries out his directives. Prior to 1955, "the man" was LOUIS CAMPAGNA. Upon his death PAUL RICCA assumed this position. After RICCA went to prison, SAM GIANCANA moved in and took over both positions of "the man" and "the boss".

A development has occurred recently, however, which has made GIANCANA'S position untenable. WILLIAM "POTATOES" DADDANO is taking over the syndicate and GIANCANA is being forced out. GIANCANA has been embarrassing the syndicate with his off the cuff remarks, his excessive drinking and partying and lavish weddings.

When GIANCANA steps down, he is to assume the position presently occupied by JOE AIUPPA in Cicero. AIUPPA will be allowed to hold certain locations, but will not be allowed to expand. Lake County will be controlled by [redacted] (LNU). In Cicero, the boss is now (FNU) SHARKEY, a German.

It is not known whether or not this reference is identical to subject or not.

92-344-279

"Chicago Daily Tribune" p.5, c.1 8/10/59 reflects article entitled "WILLIE POTATOES - Rising Star of the Mob".

CG 92-918

"A slim ex-convict with the odd nickname of WILLIE POTATOES has forced his way to the top of the Chicago underworld.

"In some corners of the underworld, the incumbent of the top post is known as "The Man". His second in command, who directs the actual operation of rackets, is referred to as "The Boss". "The man" makes the decisions. "The Boss" carries them out.

"The backing of DADDANO, now considered the heir apparent to at least one of the two gangland posts, comes from a savage band of "Young bloods" in the crime syndicate who reportedly have rebelled against the leadership of GIANCANA.

"Among those less widely known as a member of the insurgent clique is FRANK (SHARKEY) EULO, who assumed a top position in Cicero gambling with the sanction of DADDANO.

"DADDANO is said to be the only hoodlum who can hold the "young bloods" in check. He is feared by his fellow gangsters as a ruthless torturer."

92-344-307

"Chicago Daily Tribune" 10/14/59 p.1, c.5 reflects article entitled "Gang Chief's Kin Reel Off Film Union Cash".

"TONY ACCARDO, the millionaire gangster didn't raise his boy to be a hoodlum, a gunman or a saloon keeper.

Young Tony, 23, eldest son of the big crime boss, was brought up in luxury, apparently to become a member of the Chicago Moving Picture Operators Union, Local 110. Young Tony was sponsored by JOHNNY ACCARDO. JOHN ACCARDO is a brother of the gang boss. He reportedly makes more than $600 a week as a projectionist at race tracks and Loop movie theaters.

On 5/3/61 SA VINCENT L. INSERRA and SA JOHN R. BASSETT interviewed FRANK "SHARKEY" EULO at Gus' Steak House, 4819 W. Roosevelt, Cicero, after EULO reluctantly admitted to his identity and advised as follows:

CG 92-918

He has long been a gambler by occupation and has operated various poker and dice games in the Cicero area. Concerning the gambling operation at Gus' Steak House, he claimed that he is presently the sole operator of this enterprise. This includes only the operation of the dice and poker games. At first EULO denied that there was any race wire service operating at GUS' Steak House; however, later admitted that there was such an operation. PAYROLLER TOO DUMB TO BE A GAMBLER: BOSS

Clears Hood Linked to 2 Cicero Joints

Gustav [Gus] Kringas, an ex-convict and gambler, was labeled yesterday by his city sanitary department boss as too stupid to operate a gambling joint.

As the statement was made by Ted C. Eppig, deputy streets and sanitation commissioner, members of the powerful city council finance committee were clashing elsewhere in City hall over the presence of Kringas and other hoodlums on the city payroll.

Kringas is the crime syndicate hoodlum who operates two gambling casinos in Cicero while employed by the city as a $424 a month rat control expert. TRIBUNE reporters this week found both joints in full swing.

Keane, Hoellen Clash

The finance committee clash came as Ald. John J. Hoellen [47th] questioned Arthur Lindell, city budget director, about what he was doing to rid the payrolls of hoodlums.

Ald. Thomas E. Keane [31st], committee chairman and powerful colleague of Mayor Daley, came to Lindell's rescue, proclaiming that "I'm defending the cleanest city administration we've ever had."

Eppig

The name of Sam DeStefano, the crime syndicate loan shark who assaulted a TRIBUNE reporter Sunday, came into the clash, too, when Hoellen asked: "Are we getting proper supervision in field work?"

Lindell replied he thought the city was getting "pretty good supervision."

"Sam DeStefano was on the city payroll as a dump foreman," Hoellen retorted. "How did he get on?"

"Getting Mixed Up" Thru civil service," injected Ald. Keane. "He was employed as a rat exterminator, anyway. Not as a dump foreman."

"You're getting your gangsters mixed up, Uncle Tom," Hoellen observed. "Kringas was the rat exterminator. How did he get on?"

Lindell replied that Kringas, too, was a civil service employee and Keane observed that no one had said Kringas didn't perform a full day's work.

"He was checked by one of our best investigators," Lindell said. "He has no connection with gambling."

After two days of questioning Kringas, Eppig said Kringas had convinced him he had no connection with gambling.

"He isn't that smart," Eppig said. "You have to be a sharpie to operate a place like that."

Eppig said Kringas' criminal record had been compiled before he became a city employee and that no proof had been presented that he "was ever off the job."

The primary location of Kringas' gambling enterprises is Gus' Steak house, 4817 Roosevelt rd., Cicero, which sports a large neon sign bearing his name.

Kringas denies the place is his, declaring that it is owned by his brother, John, a one-time Democratic precinct captain.

Occupation

On May 9, 1961, subject EULO advised SAs BASSETT and INSERRA that he has long been a gambler by occupation and has operated various poker and dice games in the Cicero, Illinois area. Concerning the gambling operation in Gus' Steak House in Cicero, Illinois, he stated that he was at that time the sole operator of this enterprise. In connection with his gambling activities, records are maintained for him by the D & B Booking Service, Chicago.

On May 9, 1961, [redacted] for the D & B Booking Service, 5115 West Chicago Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, furnished to SAs RALPH R. HILL and CHARLES E. BRUNNER the books and records in her possession pertaining to Gus' Steak House of Cicero, Incorporated, 4819 West Roosevelt Road, Cicero, Illinois. [redacted] advised that this booking service has been handling Gus' Steak House accounts since 1960. The booking service is run by [redacted] who, according to [redacted] is presently incarcerated in the Du Page County Jail, Du Page County, Illinois, and is due to be released in August, 1961. [redacted] stated that she did not care to discuss the nature or the charge on which [redacted] has been incarcerated. The records furnished by [redacted] included the payroll and purchasing orders of this incorporation. [redacted] stated that she has not met the owner of this booking service and is not acquainted with his name. She said that "a man with a limp" brings the records on a periodic basis to be placed in the books from which the Employees Annual Federal Unemployment Tax Return (Form 940) is prepared.

on March 30, 1961 that a check of Soundex records for the years 1957 through 1961 failed to reflect any vehicles registered or titled to FRANK EULO.

CG T-1 advised on November 9, 1961 that FRANK EULO and his wife, at various times, drive a 1959 brown Pontiac station wagon and a 1960 white Pontiac Bonneville.

Relatives

CG T-1 advised on November 9, 1961 that FRANK EULO has one son whom he knows only as [redacted]. According to this source, [redacted] is about thirty years old and is self-employed in the rug and carpet business. He stated that [redacted] has two small children by his first wife, from whom he is divorced.

[redacted] Allen Chevrolet Company, 6527 Roosevelt Road, Berwyn, Illinois, advised on August 8, 1958 that he sold a 1958 Chevrolet Impala to MIKE SABATINO, 1104 South Maple, Oak Park, Illinois, on November 30, 1957. According to [redacted] SABATINO is a "collector" for the syndicate. It should be noted that MIKE SABATINO has been reported to be a brother-in-law of FRANK EULO.

The "Chicago Daily Tribune" issue of October 14, 1959, Page 1, Column 5, contained an article entitled "Gang Chiefs Kin Reel Off Film Union Cash". This article states that TONY ACCARDO, the millionaire gangster, did not raise his boy to be a hoodlum, a gunman or a saloon keeper. Young TONY, 23, eldest son of the big crime boss, was brought up in luxury apparently to become a member of the Chicago Moving Pictures Operators Union, Local 110. Young TONY was sponsored by JOHNNY ACCARDO. JOHN ACCARDO is a brother of the gang boss. He reportedly makes more than $600 a week as a projectionist at race tracks and loop movie theaters.

Other members of the local, as identified on city records, included [redacted] of [redacted] [redacted] a relative of FRANK (SHARKEY) EULO, an associate of East Coast gangsters.

II. ILLEGAL ACTIVITIES

CG T-3 advised on November 11, 1960 that there is a gambling operation located on the second floor of Gus'

CG T-4 advised on December 16, 1960 that Gus' Steak House, which is located on Roosevelt Road and 48th Court, Cicero, Illinois, is a restaurant operated by the "gambling syndicate". This source further stated that the upstairs of Gus' Steak House is completely devoted to gambling. They have a horse book, dice tables, card tables and blackjack tables. The whole layout is operated by an individual known to this source as FRANK SHARKEY, a white male, 55 to 60 years of age, gray hair, 5'2", 195 pounds. SHARKEY, according to this source, is an ex-convict. This individual is identical to FRANK "SHARKEY" EULO of 1104 South Maple Avenue, Oak Park, Illinois, a close associate of GIANCANA and an individual who is reputed to be his brother-in-law.

Several sources have advised at various times that SAM "MOONEY" GIANCANA is a leader of the underworld element in the Chicago area.

CG T-5 advised on December 7, 1960 that he was in possession of the following information on Gus' Steak House, Incorporated, 4817-19 West Roosevelt Road, Cicero, Illinois:

b6
b7C
b7D

The "Chicago Daily Tribune" issue of August 10, 1959, Page 5, in an article entitled "Willie Potatoes - Rising Star of the Mob", states that an ex-convict with the odd nickname of WILLIE POTATOES has forced his way to the top of the Chicago underworld.

"WILLIE POTATOES" is WILLIE POTATOES DADDANO who is now considered the heir apparent to at least one of two gangland posts. Backing of DADDANO comes from a savage bank of "young bloods" in the crime syndicate who reportedly have rebelled against the leadership of GIANCANA.

Among those less widely known as a member of the insurgent clique is FRANK (SHARKEY) EULO, who assumed a top position in Cicero gambling with the sanction of DADDANO. DADDANO is said to be the only hoodlum who can hold the "young bloods" in check. He is feared by his fellow gangsters as a ruthless torturer.

The "Chicago Daily Tribune" issue of November 15, 1961, Page 1, in an article captioned "Cicero Bookie Also Veteran City Employee", states that GUSTAV (GUS) KRINGAS, age 54, an ex-convict and crime syndicate gangster, moved his gambling casino into new quarters in Cicero yesterday as the Tribune discovered that he was on the payroll of Chicago.

KRINGAS and two other gangsters - JOE (PEPPE) GIANCANA and FRANK (SHARKEY) EULO are the big wheels of syndicate gambling in the north section of Cicero. The KRINGAS-EULO-GIANCANA casino is part of a syndicate gambling empire in north Cicero which includes the collection headquarters of SAM DE STEFANO, 51, a gang loan shark. DE STEFANO was indicted by a county grand jury yesterday on charges of assault with intent to commit murder in an attack on a Tribune reporter.

CG 92-918

The "Chicago Tribune" issue of November 14, 1961, Page 1, in an article entitled "Vote to Indict Hood in Attack on Tribune Man", states that the Cicero gambling dens - Gus' Steak House, 4817 Roosevelt Road, and a handbook in the rear of a saloon at 14th Street and Cicero Avenue, are in the rackets sanctuary of DE STEFANO and three other mobsters, JOE "PEPPE" GIANCANA, FRANK (SHARKEY) EULO and GUS KRINGAS.

JOE GIANCANA is a brother of the new mob strong man, SAM "MOONEY" GIANCANA. EULO, reportedly the man behind the 14th Street handbook, is an errand boy for SAM GIANCANA in the north section of Cicero. KRINGAS, an ex-convict, controls the big handbook above the steak house which bears his name.

III. ASSOCIATES

ANTHONY CHAMPAGNE

CG T-1 advised on November 9, 1961 that one ANTHONY CHAMPAGNE was EULO's attorney in handling the real estate deal when EULO purchased his home at 1838 North 77th Court, Elmwood Park, Illinois. It should be noted that ANTHONY V. CHAMPAGNE is also the attorney for several other hoodlums in the Chicago area including TONY ACCARDO and SAM "MOONEY" GIANCANA.

Various sources have advised that TONY ACCARDO and SAM "MOONEY" GIANCANA are leaders of the Chicago underworld.

CG T-1 advised that a vehicle bearing 1961 Illinois license number 589-740 was observed parked in front of EULO's residence in Elmwood Park, Illinois on several occasions.

A check of the Illinois automobile registrations reflect that 1961 Illinois license number 589-740 is listed to ANTHONY V. CHAMPAGNE, 1501 Bonnie Brae, River Forest, Illinois, on a 1961 Buick.

SAM "MOONEY" GIANCANA

On May 9, 1961, FRANK EULO advised SAs BASSETT and INSERRA that he has known SAM "MOONEY" GIANCANA since his boyhood days dating back to the 1920's.

CG 92-918

In April, 1956 and in May, 1958, GIANCANA underwent surgery at which time he used the alias RUSSELL PAIGE and gave his home address as 1104 South Maple Avenue, Oak Park, Illinois. Investigation conducted at that time reflected that the residents at 1104 South Maple Avenue, Oak Park, Illinois, were FRANK EULO and his wife ROSE, and MIKE SABATINO and his wife [redacted]. In addition to these individuals who had been observed entering and leaving this residence, a car registered to [redacted] 1104 South Maple Avenue, Oak Park, Illinois, was observed parked in the immediate vicinity of this house on several occasions.

b6

ANTHONY J. ACCARDO

A car registered to EULO, 1104 South Maple Avenue, Oak Park, Illinois, was observed by the then Scotland Yard Detail of the Chicago Police Department at the July 5, 1954 annual party held at the residence of ANTHONY J. ACCARDO, 915 Franklin Street, River Forest, Illinois. This information was made available by the then Lieutenant JOSEPH MORRIS, at that time head of the Scotland Yard Detail.

JOSEPH PROFACI

CG T-6 advised in November, 1957 that the name of FRANK EULO, 1104 South Maple Avenue, Oak Park, Illinois, was obtained from cards and papers carried by JOSEPH PROFACI who had been described by a New York source as the number one man among Sicilians in New York and the United States, and as the man to whom leaders of five Sicilian combinations in the metropolitan area of New York are responsible.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION.

Date September 14, 1961.

[redacted] "Chicago Daily News", advised that on Saturday evening, September 2, 1961, at the Tam O'Shanter Country Club, Niles, Illinois.

JOSEPH PAUL GLIMCO, SR., attended this wedding reception and was well received by all guests in attendance. She advised she noticed a number of the "more prominent Chicago hoodlums", such as ANTHONY J. ACCARDO and MURRAY L. HUMPHREYS talking to GLIMCO. She related that one group of men just inside the entrance of the Tam O'Shanter formed what appeared to be a receiving or welcoming line and this group carefully scrutinized all arriving guests. MURRAY HUMPHREYS and WILLIE ALOISO were two of the men in this particular line.

She further stated that ACCARDO did not appear to huddle with the larger groups, but rather remained off in a corner by himself and that during the course of the evening men frequently went over to confer with him. ACCARDO, HUMPHREYS, ALOISO, ROCCO FISCHETTI, GUS ZAPAS, JOSEPH ARNOLD, and a "number of other Chicago hoodlums" drank champagne quite heavily while seated near a marquee at the country club.

She further advised that one group of about twenty prominent Chicago hoodlums with the exception of ACCARDO sat together at two tables of ten men each. There were no women at these tables and the men drank heavily of $25 a bottle champagne, but consumed very little hard liquor. [redacted] stated that MURRAY HUMPHREYS appeared to be in ill health, looked extremely pale and drawn in both face and body, and she overheard numerous guests asking him about the state of his health. HUMPHREYS remarked to the effect that he had recently had or was about to have an operation and the many guests put their arms around him while giving him words of assurance. [redacted] stated she overheard some discussion about "fighting the Feds," but could not make out specifically what was said in this particular conversation.

b7D

[redacted] advised it appeared obvious to her that the Tam O'Shanter management was "protecting their guests" as she and other waitresses were reminded several times that reporters and investigators were at the front gate of the club and the girls should tell them nothing. She advised [redacted] of the Tam O'Shanter was "extremely friendly and cordial" to all guests. She stated that at one point she observed one formally dressed male guest standing in the kitchen observing the preparation of all food to be consumed. She further related that during the entire course of the evening, the men smoked heavily, were herded together in groups, and spoke in low tones about business and financial transactions, the specific nature of which she was unable to understand. She advised that in her opinion this social event was merely "an excuse for a meeting of Chicago's gangland figures as it provided them with a natural opportunity to talk over existing problems under the best possible circumstances."

b6
b7D

She stated that the coat room at the Tam O'Shanter, where this reception was being held, was full of very expensive furs of all colors and types. The women were beautifully dressed and adorned with very expensive jewelry. She advised Mrs. JACK CERONE, Sr., attended the reception in a wheel chair accompanied by an unknown person and that JACK CERONE, Sr., was attired in a beautiful tuxedo over a white satin dress shirt.

She advised she previously sought out SAM GIANCANA and GUS ALEX at this reception, but was unable to spot them among the some 1,300 guests in attendance during the hours she worked, from 5 p.m. until 11:30 p.m. that evening. She advised that after reviewing photographs of Chicago hoodlums, she was

Interview of Subject

Date May 9, 1961

FRANK "Sharkey" EULO was interviewed at Gus' Steak House, 4819 West Roosevelt, Cicero, Illinois, after EULO reluctantly admitted to his identity and advised as follows:

He has long been a gambler by occupation and has operated various poker and dice games in the Cicero, Illinois area. Concerning the gambling operation at Gus' Steak House, he claimed that he is presently the sole operator of this enterprise. This includes only the operation of the dice and poker games. At first EULO denied that there was any race wire service operating at Gus' Steak House; however, later admitted that there was such an operation. This race wire service is operated by one [redacted] who is from the Chicago South Side and who has a gambling stamp for this type of operation.

Concerning SAN GIANCANA, EULO claims to have known GIANCANA since 1920 having known him since boyhood days. According to EULO, GIANCANA is not connected in any way with his gambling operation at Gus' Steak House and claims to know nothing about GIANCANA's activities. About 5 years ago, EULO had a partner in his gambling operation named "Queenie" SIMONELLI, a brother-in-law of ANTHONY ACCARDO. EULO again stated that he alone had the gambling operation at this establishment and that GUS IRINGAS is the owner of the premises of Gus' Steak House.

In connection with his current gambling activities, records are maintained for EULO by the D & B Booking Service in Chicago, formerly located at 5024 West Chicago Avenue, which recently moved to another location about a block away on the same street. One [redacted] operates this bookkeeping service and claimed that these records are available for review if necessary.

By way of background information, EULO stated that he was born February 17, 1907 at Chicago. He resides at

On August 18, 1960, Investigator [redacted] States Attorney's Office, advised that FRANK EULO, 1104 South Maple Avenue, Oak Park, Illinois, was one of several individuals arrested during a gambling raid at 1300 South Cicero, Cicero, Illinois, where MARIO D. STEFANO runs a well known horse book and floating crap game at his restaurant.

92-466-911

Chicago Daily Tribune, Three Star Sports Final Edition, 11/15/61, page 1, column 1, part 1 contained an article entitled "Cicero Bookie Also Veteran City Employee" further "On the Payroll for 14 Years". The article reflects that GUSTAVE (GUS) KRINGAS, 54, an ex-convict and crime syndicate gangster, moved his gambling casino into new quarters in Cicero 11/14/61 as the Tribune discovered that he was on the payroll of the city of Chicago.

Check of the city records disclosed that KRINGAS was drawing $424 a month as a street cleaner and "rat control" expert in the city department of streets and sanitation.

City officials were defending KRINGAS as a faithful toiler for the taxpayers at the very moment that Tribune reporters stepped into his new gambling den on the first floor of a two flat building at 4901 Roosevelt rd., Cicero.

KRINGAS and two other gangsters, [REDACTED] and FRANK (SHARKEY) EULO—are the big wheels of syndicate gambling in the north section of Cicero.

b7C

Their big gambling operation in which the three hoodlums reportedly split the profits, was shifted to the new location after the Tribune exposed its former site in GUS' Steak House, 4718 Roosevelt Road, Cicero. There, the gambling room was above the restaurant, which flashes KRINGAS' name on a huge electric sign.

The KRINGAS-EULO-GIANCANA casino is part of the syndicate's gambling empire in north Cicero which includes the collection headquarters of SA DESTEFANO, 51, a gang loan shark.

Reporters gained entrance to the "sneak" gambling room by mounting a rear porch of the building at 4901 Roosevelt rd, and pressing a buzzer. A steel door opened after the reporters were okayed as patrons by no less than four lookouts.

ANTI-RACKETEERING

Synopsis:

FRANK EULO resides at 1838 N. 77th Court, Elmwood Park, Illinois, and continues operations as a gambler, namely card games in Cicero, Illinois. Sources advise that the "heat is on" in the Chicago area and gambling operations carried on a "sneak basis". EULO reportedly is looking to get into some "new business" and has his home up for sale. EULO's record, Illinois State Penitentiary reviewed and information set forth.

DETAILS:

Current Residence

CG T-1 advised on February 9, 1962, that FRANK EULO and his wife ROSE continue to reside at 1838 North 77th Court, Elmwood Park, Illinois. This source also advised that FRANK's son [] and his wife now also reside here.

Illegal Activities

The previously reported gambling operation at Gus' Steak House, 4817 West Roosevelt Road, Cicero, Illinois, was moved to a nearby location at 4901 West Roosevelt, Cicero, Illinois, according to an article appearing in the "Chicago Daily Tribune", November 15, 1961. This article, which names FRANK EULO as one of the operators of the gambling activities in this establishment, stated that various forms of gambling such as poker, black jack and roulette were in evidence at the new address. Horse bets were accepted here to but a cashier explained that new federal laws outlawed the Booky Race Results Service and delayed payoffs until the next day.

CG T-1 advised at various times that recent newspaper publicity about Gus' Steak House had apparently put FRANK EULO out of business temporarily. He stated that for weeks following this publicity, FRANK EULO could be found at home any time of the day or night. Prior to this time EULO had a regular schedule departing from home and returning late at night.

CG T-2 advised in January, 1962, that the Royal Cafe located on Roosevelt Road, Cicero, Illinois, has a card game operating on a daily basis on the second floor of the building. FRANK "SHARKEY" EULO and GUS KRINGAS are the individuals operating the card game according to this source. He said there were no horse books at this location and that gambling is generally down in Cicero and where there is gambling or horse books, they are operating on a sneak basis. The informant advised that there used to be a huge horse book over this cafe, however, with all the heat on in Chicago this operation was down at the present time.

CG T-3 advised in the latter part of January, 1962, that he received information that GUS ALEX was very much concerned with the numerous raids made on book makers and gamblers in the Chicago area, and that at that time he did not know what he could do about it. It was ALEX' opinion that the "heat is really on", and that gambling was at its lowest ebb in years.

CG T-4 advised in January, 1962, that information had reached him to the effect that SAM "MONNEY" GIANCANA realized that the squeeze is being put on bookies and that he was of the opinion that "the outfit" was not going to make any more payments for protection and that anyone operating would be "on his own".

Personal Activities

CG T-1 advised in the latter part of January, 1962, that ROSE EULO, FRANK's wife, [REDACTED]

Re Chicago letter to New York dated 1/31/62.

Relet requested Los Angeles to ascertain the identity of a Mr. B. PIPITONE, 130 $\frac{1}{2}$ West 79th Street, Los Angeles, California, who was listed as a correspondent of the subject at Joliet Penitentiary, year unknown.

The present occupant of the above address is one a colored man who states he has lived there for over five years. He had no knowledge of PIPITONE, and had never heard of him living there.

b7C

Los Angeles Police Department records list a BENNIE PIPITONE, Los Angeles Police Department #27815 D 88, who was 21 years old in 1928. He was arrested for Grand Theft Auto on 10/2/28 and released since he had the owner's permission to use the car. Another arrest on 11/26/28 was for WAP (Wright Act - Prohibition) and he was convicted and fined $250. or 50 days which was appealed on 1/7/29.

Description of BENNIE PIPITONE from Los Angeles Police Department records: 5'11", 175 lbs, brown eyes, brown hair, occupation salesman, laborer, address 1847 West 78th Street and 1419 West 54th Street, Los Angeles (in 1928).

No record of PIPITONE was located at the Los Angeles Sheriff's Office and Retail Merchants Credit Association or Office indices.

Further investigative effort to locate PIPITONE by Los Angeles does not seem justified at this time because of the meager amount of information available concerning the person who may have corresponded with the subject while he was at Joliet.

EULO indicates that no one wants to come around and gamble or bet on the horses since they are afraid of being arrested in one of the gambling raids by State's Attorney's Police. Investigation of subject FRANK EULO to date has indicated that his main activity is in connection with gambling operations carried on usually at the Dixie Lounge, 1410 South Cicero Avenue, Cicero, Illinois, or in a residential home located at 49th Avenue and Roosevelt Road, Cicero, Illinois. It is not believed that his activities warrant investigation of EULO as a hoodlum of high stature in organized crime in the Chicago area. If in the event parallel investigation should indicate in the future that EULO has expanded his activities to other than gambling and his stature and influence in the organized crime picture are enlarged this case will be reopened. On the basis of the above this case is being placed in a closed status.

On November 26, 1962, States Attorney's Policeman KUNO SCHRODER, States Attorney's Police Department, Cook County, Illinois, who is a former Special Agent of the FBI, was advised of EULO's gambling activities in the residence located on the southwest corner of 49th Avenue and Roosevelt Road, Cicero, Illinois. SCHRODER advised that ROSWELL T. SPENCER, Chief of the States Attorney's Police Department was then on vacation but would be advised of this information confidentially on his return and the possibility of a gambling raid at this address was probable.

Gus' Steak House
4817 West Roosevelt Road
Cicero, Illinois

On 11/11/60, [] advised SA CURTIS A. HESTER that there was a gambling operation located on the second floor of Gus' Steak House, 4817 West Roosevelt Road, which is owned and operated by SAM GIANCANA and run by SAM' brother, JOSEPH "PEPE" GIANCANA. b7D

According to [] the money for this establishment was put up by JOHNNIE KRINGAS, brother of GUS KRINGAS. This, according to Informant, is the family who are also partners in the funeral parlor of KRINGAS and MARGULAS. b7D Informant advised that the upstairs of Gus' Steak House is completely devoted to gambling. This included horse booking, dice tables, card tables and blackjack tables. The whole layout is operated by an individual known as FRANK "SHARKEY" EULO. Informant advised that this man is an ex-convict who lives at 1104 South Maple, Oak Park, Illinois, a close associate of GIANCANA and an individual who is reputed to be his brother-in-law.

On 5/3/61, SAs VINCENT L. INSERRA and JOHN R. BASSETT appeared at Gus' Steak House at 4817 West Roosevelt Road, and attempted to interview an individual who identified himself as GUS KRINGAS, and who was apparently employed as the bartender at this establishment. KRINGAS advised that he was a fulltime employee for the Bureau of Sanitation in Chicago and only worked part-time at the Steak House. He stated he had no financial interest in the Steak House and that he was not acquainted with anyone named FRANK "SHARKEY" EULO.

It was noted at this time that FRANK SHARKEY EULO entered the Steak House, ordered refreshments, and addressed KRINGAS by name.

92-918

FRANK "SHARKEY" EULO was interviewed by SAs INSERRA and BASSETT on 5/3/61, at which time he admitted he was an ex-convict and life-long gambler. He stated that he was the sole operator of the card and dice games located on the second floor of Gus' Steak House, and stated that a race wire service was operated separately by an individual known as [REDACTED]

b6

During interview, EULO denied that he was related to SAMUEL M. GIANCANA, Chicago top hoodlum, and advised that GIANCANA had no interest whatsoever in the gambling enterprise located at Gus' Steak House.

He further advised that general conversation at the Dixie Lounge indicates that the strip joints in Cicero are not performing the lewd acts which had been their trademark for years. He advised that everyone is complaining that due to this "business is off", however, no one can do anything about because of the tremendous heat that has been brought to bear on the Police Chief, Cicero, through newspaper accounts and through the efforts of the present head of the States Attorney's Police ROSWELL T. Airtel to Director from SAC, Chicago, dated 3/29/63 re: FRANK EULO - ITWI

Re Bureau airtel captioned GAMBLING INVESTIGATIONS, CHICAGO DIVISION, dated 3/12/63.

Investigation by the Chicago Division has reflected that one FRANK EULO operates a notorious crap game in the City of Cicero, Illinois. No horse or sports bookmaking action is reported at this location. This game, although changing location from time to time, operates with the complete sanction and protection of the Cicero Police Department. FRANK EULO has recently been hospitalized with a serious heart condition and one JOSEPH "PEPPI" GIANCANA, brother of SAM GIANCANA, Chicago top hoodlum, has taken over the direct supervision of the operation.

[redacted] who has always supplied reliable information, particularly with reference to gambling in the Cicero area, has been frequenting this establishment in an effort to determine if any violation with respect to the federal gambling legislation is in evidence. To date the operation is strictly a local one. [redacted]

[redacted]

b7D

[redacted] advises that the game is large, a combination of chip and money game with large sums of money always present. The game runs every day from about 11:30 AM until early evening. Up until 12:30 PM, a large gin and poker operation is conducted. At 12:30 PM, the crap game starts up and runs until early evening when the place is again used for gin and poker. Saturday is usually the heaviest afternoon of the week with an estimated attendance of forty people. No evidence of a federal violation has been developed.

b7D

The game is presently lodged in a two-flat building at 4901 Roosevelt Road, Cicero, Illinois. [redacted]

[redacted]

b7D

92-918

The customers of the game are legitimate businessmen as well as a collection of burglars and thieves from the Chicago and Cicero area.

The Chicago Division believes it has sufficient informant information to secure a local warrant, and has established through surveillance necessary corroborating evidence to support such a warrant.

The Chicago Division requests permission to submit its evidence to ROSWELL SPENCER, former Bureau Agent, now Chief of the Cook County States Attorney' Police, and [redacted] States Attorney, Cook County, and former Chief of the Criminal Division, United States Attorney' Office in Chicago, Illinois. The Chicago Division has excellent liaison with these individuals. b6 b7C

SA WILLIAM A. MEINCKE will swear to a warrant upon which the States Attorney' Police will take action. No agent personnel will be utilized in this purely local action other than securing the warrant and conducting logical interviews and investigation to protect the Bureau' interests after the local authorities have secured this raid.

The above plan is hereby being submitted for the Bureau' approval. Due to the fact that these establishments change location frequently and that this location is particularly vulnerable an early target date of Saturday afternoon, April 6, 1963, is tentatively set for this action subject to Bureau approval.

Chicago Division has conducted all logical investigative steps to ascertain whether any federal violation exists in this matter with negative results.

[redacted] b7D
He advised that the top-most positions in the outfit are passed from father to son. He advised that in many instances the son of a prominent hoodlum will be kept legit until his father dies or the need for him arises and he immediately moves into the circle of hoodlums in which his father was prominent.

He advised that he has heard rumors to the effect that there is an oath in connection with reaching the inner circle of the hoodlums in Chicago. He advised however, that he has never been approached himself and has no first-hand knowledge of this rite or ritual. He advised that although Sicilian Italians head organized crime, he has always heard the Chicago organization referred to as the "outfit" or the "syndicate". The present leader of this organization is SAM GIANCANA. He advised that on his level of activity he would not normally meet with GIANCANA or anyone on his level, however would frequent establishments and hangouts of people such as NICOLETTI and EULO.

DETAILS: AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

This investigation was reinstituted in order to determine the present activities of subject EULO.

On December 18, 1962, Chicago T-1 advised that FRANK "SHARKEY" EULO had recently suffered a heart attack in the shower of his home and was severely scalded on the chest before relatives discovered him in the shower. According to Chicago T-1 EULO was planning to move to California to reside there permanently because of his heart condition.

CG 92-913

On October 30, 1963, Chicago T-2 advised that "SHARKEY" EULO, apparently has a financial interest in the Dreamway Strip Lounge in Cicero, inasmuch as he is frequently seen in this lounge.

On January 2, 1964, Chicago T-3 advised that a crap game operating in a house near 13th Street and 47th Avenue, Cicero, is operated by one [redacted] whose first name is [redacted] and is an employee of "SHARKEY" EULO.

b7C

On January 8, 1964, Chicago T-4 advised he had learned the OK had been given in Cicero to shoot craps and for this reason the Trotters Tavern, 1410 South Cicero Avenue, Cicero, Illinois, owned by "SHARKEY" EULO may soon start a gambling operation there. EULO [redacted]

The Red Dart Edition of the "Chicago Daily News" dated February 13, 1964, on page 5, contains an article which is captioned "Here's Where Mob Chiefs Hang Hats in Suburbia." It states that Chicago hoodlums have burrowed in suburbia like snakes in a garden. Scores of them are living lavishly if discreetly in the western suburbs, but they are also to be found north and south. Among those listed was: "FRANK EULO, 1838 No. 77th Ct., CERONE's chauffeur. He's also reputed to be a killer."

On February 2, 1965, Chicago T-5 advised that while there is no gambling operating at Gus' Steak House, 4717 West Roosevelt Road, Cicero, Illinois, while it was operated by GUS KRINGUS, the upstairs gambling operations were under control of "SHARKEY" EULO while GUS KRINGUS operated The Steak House on the ground floor.

CG 92-918

On February 8, 1965, the records of the Western Cook County Credit Bureau, Oak Park, Illinois, revealed that a record on FRANK EULO and wife, ROSE, 1104 South Maple Avenue, Oak Park, Illinois, in October, 1950, had moved to 1838 North 77th Court, Elmwood Park, Illinois, in February, 1956. This record shows that the Standard Oil Company had called the credit agency on October 30, 1950, indicating that Mrs. EULO was "very uncooperative." The record shows that ROSE EULO in March, 1960, was 53 years old: that they have a son, [redacted] who resides at [redacted]

b7C

The credit record of FRANK and ROSE EULO contains a reference notation to the Pride Foods, Inc., 1008 Bellwood Avenue, Bellwood, Illinois, the record on which reveals the business was incorporated in Illinois in January, 1962, as a grocery and butcher store with five employees other than the immediate family. The [redacted] of the corporation is listed as [redacted] 1838 North 77th Court, Elmwood Park, Illinois, Vice President Mrs. ROSE EULO, same address, and [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] The business valued at $25,000.00 with original investment of $16,000.00. The business is managed by [redacted] husband of [redacted]

The following investigation was conducted by IC JOSEPH D. HAMMITT at Springfield, Illinois:

[redacted] Clerk, Corporation Section, Secretary of State, Springfield, Illinois, advised on April 8, 1965, that a check of records failed to reflect any record for Spot-Lite and the Village Food Mart, or for Pride Foods, Inc., with an address of 1008 Bellwood Avenue, Bellwood, Illinois.

b7C

However, he advised that the Articles of Incorporation for Pride Foods, Inc., 32 West Washington Street, Chicago, Illinois, were filed January 9, 1962, and the subscribers to the shares of this corporation are as follows:

ROSE EULO

[REDACTED] also advised that the duration of this corporation is perpetual, its registered agent is [REDACTED] and its purpose or purposes are to sell foods, wares, beverages and merchandise at retail and/or wholesale, of any type or nature, and to manufacture, purchase and otherwise acquire, pledge, sell, assign and transfer or otherwise dispose of; to invest, trade, deal in and deal with wares, merchandise and real and personal property of every class and description.

b7C

He also advised that this corporation was authorized to issue $100,000.00 shares of Class 1 stock with no par value as of the preceding December 31. He also advised that a decree dissolving this corporation was entered January 12, 1964 in Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois.

Spot surveillances of the subject's residence, 1838 North 77th Court, Elmwood Park, Illinois, on February 10; March 2, 8; and April 23, 1965, have failed to reveal the subject.

On April 22, 1965, a late model white Pontiac automobile bearing 1965 Illinois License [REDACTED] was observed parked in front of the subject's garage at the rear of the above address at 1:25 P.M.

b6
b7C

CG 92-918

On April 23, 1965, and May 5, 1965, Chicago T-6 advised that "SHARKEY" EULO was then on vacation, possibly in California, where he has long desired to move permanently. Chicago T-6 also advised that in addition to EULO's 1962 or 1963 white Pontiac, he is frequently seen driving a late model light colored Oldsmobile possibly belonging to his wife, ROSE, or son, [REDACTED] Chicago T-6 also advised that apparently EULO has fully recovered from the severe burn he received a few years ago as a result of an accident he had while in the steam bath in the basement of his home. Chicago T-6 stated that the accident in the steam bath was not related to a heart attack to his knowledge.

b7C

On February 17, 1965, the arrest records of the Cicero, Illinois, Police Department revealed that FRANK EULO, 1104 South Maple, Oak Park, Illinois, age 53, 175 pounds, 5'4", occupation bartender, was arrested by Cook County States Attorney Police on September 5, 1959, at 10:00 P.M. at 1304 South Cicero Avenue, Cicero, on a charge of being a keeper of a gambling house. The disposition of this arrest is indicated as having been dismissed on October 13, 1959.

[redacted] south of the Arcade Pizzeria at 2328 South Cicero is a hotel entrance. Inside this entrance is a hall with a bell button off by itself labeled "Contractor." He said you push this button and wait. About 15 or 20 feet down the hall is a peep hole from which you are observed. If you look okay you are buzzed into the hotel. Down the hall you make a small jog and you are at another door, a new solid oak door, where you again push a button. You enter this door and you find you are trapped between two solid oak doors. The second door has a peep hole from which you are again observed. If they know you, the door is opened and you find yourself in a newly constructed room which has two or three poker tables. This game is operated for AIUPPA by [redacted]

DETAILS: AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

On May 23, 1968, CG T-2 advised that a man by the name of SHIMINUTES, whose first name is not known, is the keeper of a gambling operation at 1300 South 51st Street, Cicero, Illinois, and is under the control of FRANK "SHARKEY" EULO.

On September 17, 1968, CG T-3 advised that JOE SHIMINUTES has been an employee of SHARKEY EULO's for many years in the operation of dice and card games. T-3 advised that SHIMINUTES was recently arrested by the Cook County Sheriff's Department on a gambling charge and that apparently EULO is seeking a new location, preferably out of the Cicero area.

On October 11, 1968, CG T-3 advised that one [redacted] (phonetic) assists in the operation of wire rooms for FRANKIE EULO in the Cicero area. According to CG T-3, this [redacted] formerly was a carddealer under JOE SHIMINUTES, and that this [redacted] has five locations in Cicero, Illinois, where he moves his operation frequently.

CG 92-913

On June 24, 1969, CG T-3 advised that FRANK "SHARKEY" EULO no longer has any authority in the Cicero, Illinois, area.

By airtel dated May 21, 1969, the Tampa Division advised as follows:

[redacted] Dreher Construction Company, 1721 Candlewood Drive, Holiday, Florida, advised this date that FRANK and ROSE EULO were purchasing a home in his development. They have placed approximately $15,000.00 down in checks with approximately $15,000.00 additional money to be spent on completion of the home. The new address will be 1703 Hickory Drive, Holiday, Florida. Mr. EULO indicated that he was going to pay cash for the new home and gave previous address of 1838 North 77th Court, Elwood, Illinois.

[redacted] added that the EULOs are presently staying in a furnished apartment in Holiday, Florida. Mr. EULO claimed to have a friend who was a former senator in the State of Illinois living in Beacon Square, which is a sub-division also in Holiday, Florida. This individual listed his name as JAMES ADDUCCI, 303 Springfield Drive, Holiday, Florida. [redacted] stated he is also building a home next door to the EULOs which is reportedly for the brother-in-law of Mr. EULO. [redacted] stated he has never met the [redacted] but they have forwarded him checks by mail for down payment on the home and have indicated they will pay cash for this home. [redacted] stated he does not remember the name of the bank on which the checks have been drawn, but will obtain this information on receipt of the next checks from either EULO or [redacted]

By letter dated July 23, 1969, the Tampa Division advised as follows:

[redacted] Dreher Construction Company, 1721 Candlewood Drive, Holiday, Florida, advised on July 23, 1969, that EULO and his wife are now moved into their new home at 1703 Hickory Drive, Holiday, Florida. He stated that EULO's brother-in-law, [redacted] has already moved into their new home which is next door to the EULO's residence on Hickory Drive. The EULOs have been residing most of the time with the [redacted] while they are moving their furniture into their new home. The EULOs reportedly have had several members of their family from the Chicago, Illinois, area visit them, but he doesn't know their identity.

[redacted] furnished a xerox copy of a bank money order from FRANK EULO, dated June 17, 1969, number 64059, paid to the order of [redacted] in the amount of $7,675.00. This bank money order was drawn on the First National Bank of New Port Richey, New Port Richey, Florida.

[redacted] stated that during all the time he has been in the construction business this has been a most unusual transaction. He stated that most of the people moving into the new Florida sub-divisions will establish a bank account with one of the banks in the area and pay off their construction loans by check. He advised that while EULO was residing in an apartment, which was owned by his father, while his new residence was being built, he always paid his father in cash.

[redacted] stated further that EULO has not indicated to him in any way that he plans to go into any type of business, but appears to be the usual retiree who plans to build and live in this area. EULO did mention to him on one occasion as to whether he had any connection with anyone in the law enforcement field, as he possibly would need assistance in obtaining a Florida driver's license. EULO did not indicate any further as to what would be his difficulty in obtaining a Florida driver's license.

The commission focused its attention on the Chicago area as a result of earlier testimony which showed that only 15 percent of the 10,000 gambling arrests made in Cook County last year resulted in convictions. Of the convictions, prison terms were levied in only 13 instances.

Date 8/15/86

From : SAC, TAMPA (92A-2338 Sub 8)

Subject: FRANK PAUL EULO;
TRAFFICANTE LCN FAMILY
REI
OO: TAMPA

In Chicago teletype to Bureau, dated 5/15/69, FRANK PAUL EULO was characterized as having been a top gambling figure in the Chicago area and an LCN member. When SAM GIANCANA was boss of Chicago, EULO was one of his top gambling lieutenants and operated gambling and book making activities. In 1969, EULO sold his home in Elmwood Park, Illinois, and moved to the Tarpon Springs, Florida, area. The same year, EULO purchased a home at 1703 Holiday Drive, Holiday, Florida. Over the years, Tampa has conducted various inquiries regarding EULO's activities, and he has never appeared to have been involved in any criminal activities since moving to Florida and settling into retirement.

In February, 1986, a Racketeering Enterprise Investigation (REI) regarding EULO was approved by FBIHQ for the purpose of determining if in fact he might be involved in any illegal activities at that time.

On 5/15/86, through a neighborhood inquiry, it was determined that EULO had died approximately four months previous.

On 7/16/86, a certified copy of a certificate of death, state of Florida, was obtained from the Pasco County Health Department. This certificate indicated that PETER EULO, DOB 2/17/07, 1703 Holiday Drive, Holiday, had died on 11/16/85.
